DEDICATIONS

I would like to dedicate this book to my 3 wonderful children, Dylan, Danny, and Trinity. They have given me more ambition to want to get my trail of life out to share with others in America. To help others strive for a more genuine life, so we can work together to keep freedom here, making our own individual trails to keep evil at bay for generations to come.

A good omen!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Writing any book is a monumental task, and I have been especially blessed to have found the help, gratitude, and love of friends and family. My deepest thanks go to:

The knowledgeable people that helped with the computer process, like Marge Daniel, for proof-reading and retyping my thoughts for this book. To my father-in-law, Tom Clerkin, for proof-reading and E-mailing my book to the publishers. The solid people in Healthsouth. To the Lakemont United Methodist church in Lakemont, Pennsylvania, where I found, Pastor Al, who helped read and corrected errors. Also, Harold and Jean Corle who supported and helped with completing this book. Of course, I would never have been inspired to write this book without the love, support, and inspiration of my parents, Michael and Mary Molliver, my Grandmothers, Alma and Jane and my late grandfather Bob, my Aunts, Uncles, and family. I would especially like to thank my wife, Heather, for putting up with my absence while writing this book. She also has been very supportive of me, and patient. Last but far from least, is the Lord Jesus who has enlighten and inspired my thoughts, days and life.

THE START

Focusing on the only initial feelings that cross, studying day and night what life has thrown at you. Painfully figuring out and finding what came to the way of those feelings and how to interpret and observe while staying whom you are to live again and to make that grow and to patiently decide on the manifested feelings of your truth, intensity, and extremeness.

With all that in mind, and with so much faith, how many other different ways in your life can you reach, collect, and make grow to teach, absorb, and strive daily for prosperity?

YES, STILL NOW

Even now, even here, there is breath, air, thought, nature, and life pushing the grasp. Visions are being admired, opening wider in front, all around, and through so many tries. . So many different ways of thought there are to study. Knowing small glimpses of the great ones to get to be careful about how to reach them with patience. Gradually making new life—life from that into a thinking masterpiece, then into a ball. Getting it as fast as studying over the fence while young, and walking around life's bases.

Focusing on the only initial feelings that come to thought. Day and night studying differently what is dawning to attack your best to keep the ball over the fence. No hanger in sight and no bench for a constant ambition; truly a great persevering start.

Figuring and finding what came to the way of those feelings manifested and noticed to use in your opening trail. Not ever quitting to make it, to absorb, and to strive daily for prosperity. Empathizing dire and vital knowledge for the climb, for growth in your family, for glory, and for love. What you're after and what you want in life are now overwhelming.

The drive and reach of your perseverance is thought to administer in the correct proportions to get what you dream. Making life without a set way knowing it will stay in time to be manifested in others' eyes for life's future growth is a reach of magnitude and prosperity not seen but made.

THE GAINED, NEW GIFT

Where nothing in life seen cannot be obtained, it can be painful and deep, but living once with your trail can be made and manifested into different levels that cross. Dreams are reached with your site and obtained with the faith built in you. Knowledge comes from experience to grow and administer, for the past is now, and the future needs mankind to demolish evil and let prosperity in. Make your own trail more and make a constant effort to persevere for a new, stronger America.

Least to most and most to least, time and again, grow experience and stick to your own. Support your belief and give one thing more on your trail. Always make yours the memory of hidden treasure. Climbing life with all you learned and collected through the trail is all different and there are many ways to push. Learn patience to let in influence. Make heaven a sure heritage. This is a climb that outlasts you and you.

Life is always described as a metaphor. A journey, battle, race—select your own as a trail or climb. Any one needs finished: a journey must be completed, a battle finished, a race won, but your own trail must be climbed to teach and to grow to what your top will be. To be continued!

TRUE

Is this ambition or is it not? But the enormous thinking of joy to the world is seeing persevering, small dreams into reality along with big dreams that take patience for when you're nothing. You can get good in time, and when you are good you are ready to move to higher goals. Eagerly desire for success year after year, day and night; your life must be noticed. The consequences of not desiring success always become dire and vital for family growth and for the walk to glory and the top.

LIFE AFTER A COMA

Life is a perilous journey of thought, pain, and strength of all feelings of living for knowledge and prosperity. After all, it is what you can make it with belief and faith, power of thought and knowledge, pain, and perseverance of little things in human behavior called inklings to build on. It can be an epic display of what a human being's soul can do to affiliate the possibilities of structure. Remember that this is played out by the highest card dealt out to a strategic mind of the game of thought and belief. After time, you almost turn into a ghost holding on to only the thoughts of greatness. Until you are seen and thought of, let yourself evolve into someone who can take you there. It is an honor to receive an honest reply, for you are going to go through hell to get to heaven; think of nothing but one track to the top. Publishing to be heard would be a start, grasping for reason and truth, a solid foundation of growth and genuine strength, knowledge and pride.

ANOTHER STEP IN LIFE

You must keep behind yourself to provide for yourself to succeed in all things in life. Every day, be absolutely sure it all goes into play for your home.

Keep the well-being of your life's existence.

DESIRE

Where would the world be if there were not any feelings to be desired, to live and make your goals, and to share once something is completed and studied.

THIS MUST BE ENIGMA

Okay, say you get stuck on something that no one but you knows. The feeling is like the feeling you get when something bad is going to happen every hour but doesn't. The thought will not leave no matter what you do. So you hold on the whole time through it all. Sooner or later it will get stronger, just like lifting weights without stopping or quitting before going to the next level, and so forth and so on. You can't stop after a while; the reason is unknown. To some, it's a lot about stopping. It will happen in time, you know, but wait, back to square one. After a lot of time, it builds up and up again, and still you hold on through it all without getting lost in the thought. No matter how hard it gets in your trying because you're holding on, read through what you let in, and let go of what you won't.

Back to square one. On this level you are still holding on, and you are relentless through it all, still not losing the perseverance, remembering that you will not let go, still collecting things as you are praying "Please help me get away and get out, Lord," but still not letting go, remembering no matter how hard it gets. It's how you perfect something. Don't let go, even when you are super tired of the same thing you accidentally created and so forth, you know, still.

TO MAKE YOUR OWN TRAIL IN LIFE

Everybody has thought. Where to start is to find the strength, mind, body, and soul of you. Then when it is found, keep it, add to it, and strengthen it on your way through life, wherever you go and what ever you do. Get a positive attitude and stay positive! Feel yourself doing that to set your goal, and keep adding even then. Set your sights on what you want to achieve and go for it! To get there will take some gambles, and a long shot; do not give up. You only get one chance at life; have no regrets and live right. Wouldn't you like to be thought of with admiration and respect with people looking up to you as a positive role model? Wouldn't you like to see the chances that life sends you and really know that this is it when they come your way?

Stop for one moment to gather up your thoughts of your past, present, and future. What have you done, and what can you change in your life. Picture a mountain ridge in the distance with trails . . .

THE POSSIBILITIES

All right, for that matter, anything could grow; just see the reasons for it and the way it is going to have the feeling. Hold it and add to it as you go on. It took Thomas Edison over nine hundred tries to invent the light bulb, so people could do anything if they would dig into their thoughts and minds and set a boundary and add to it for a solid time to make it heard. That is what it would be, because that is what you would focus on, while adding the first to that would be bull. So what you focus on there is that it would change what you think and do. It would take a long time, but if you would do it, it is for you to say with reach.

Growing something to touch, administer and extend your life as a human can do anything in their trail. Help from knowing it took Thomas Edison nine hundred or so tries to invent the light bulb is something seen in the cycle. By holding, adding and keeping to add to it, what ever in life to make it seen. For that is what it would be because that is what your own trail would focus on, while adding just enough for the first one. So, it is not pretend, false, or fake, but true. Stay focused and figure your own way.

TO FORCE YOUR THOUGHTS AND CONQUER

You must fight like a wild man to change your thoughts into the way you are—very close to perfection. See ahead and switch everything—even little things—into good. It takes time, consistency, and faith not to quit. The main thing is keeping the main thing. Stick yourself to it and go while knowing you are turning everything into great and better things. Know and hold good thoughts until you can see you changed something. Your first time is the hardest, and so forth. Knowing you changed something a little makes you feel better, so you add to that as you go on, keeping the main thing in mind. You tell yourself you like that so you will add and move on to the main thing while knowing you are not going to quit and still trying to make a change for the better. You can do anything once you get there. You notice you love it that way, and so do others, and you add and add to conquer. Easy things and thoughts go nowhere, so of course it is hard. Thoughts have many forms. Through every thing, you must turn all into good as it comes to you. It is like having a personal folder in your brain that only lets good things in, because you are turning every bad thing into good for all to like and see as you are doing it. See how long your body can do some things while knowing that as you go, something will change. If this is not the case yet, you should still be adding to your way to change bad into good. Know it will grow for you and that it will not quit or fail or falter. Be good and change yourself into a great one. As for me, I can look at this letter and weed out every word and sentence into good, and at the end it will be something I just made, which I will like, and I will try like heck to do that to all knowing it.

TO CHANGE

There is a time in life that is extremely hard. It's the time during which if you know and feel it is really hard to change your ways. But when you change more, that makes it a little better after you think you have it figured out. Remember that you are trying your darnedest to change something.

HOPE

How would you do it? Is that right? I think you have to get things set up, pray, wait, cry, try, and keep on going. When doing it, the one you started will catch you. Now you have another set up before the last one catches you. Handle it for years, don't stop for anything, and always mean it as hard as heck. For a really long time without losing the first one you added to years ago. Others may forget and so forth, but you yourself must keep all things and thoughts at bay for trail. Something must happen soon and will, like still praying to see all of your thoughts caught up. Try on your next one at the moment. As for now, that is right? Here we go again and again. Hope it works this time.

Jesus, our God is the greatest Person that was ever here. You too are the greatest thing that was sent by him. I thank You extremely and infinitely for dying on the cross for our sins. I will happily open the door for You and let You in my life. Just having Your love in my body makes me feel courageous and genuine. You gave my body the utmost strength to defeat one of the devil's demons; he calls him the Grim Reaper, or we the people do anyway. Ever since then I have fought to change the inner parts of people, hoping and praying every day that You will answer my prayer of going platinum and making others understand it is You who guides my life into platinum or real thoughtfulness as the one. All I have strived for so far in my mind is the extreme of the extreme. I thank You eternally for Your support in this hell. I think that because of You, we should think that it is the beginning of an outrageous act to start in life for my family and people to see who You are, to teach people to start believing, or even more. If not, they will never understand the reason Amen.

October 9, 2005

Angels in heaven are now dancing, having fun with laughter, and giving miracles from above. There is a numero uno feeling between the souls of most faithful people that search for life and love of the extreme. A make with excellent portions and delivered glory for God knows, and helps make life in all possible to understand with manifested feelings of no evil. Giving high five to Jesus and keeping it real to increase and obtain the American dreams for your life through and through. Amen.

God and his power knows that if nothing is ventured, nothing is gained. Stay with enduring perseverance and make time for love and purity of life for the repentant, and glory and growth to his world is made forever and ever.

WHAT'S BUILT INSIDE

After still growing and knowing to acknowledge every step and every level. Standing up with growing faith, love, and more and more power. Never run from demons, for every battle will be won, and prosperity it will bring. The great drive is climbed by you and making your own trail of faith, love, and power of prayer and life. An everlasting determined drive is making the trail. You are walking through a climb in life to the top of any goal for children. Never let your days go to waste; remain scared they could be the last. Always look into your conscience of growth when making your own trail, for the knowledge of it is like that of the what's in your code and trail for America.

Be stronger willed and stronger minded. You will be a much stronger believer with faith and love of life to destroy evil demons and the devil.

UP THIS OUTSTANDING MOUNTAIN

The first extremely painful and knowledgeable strength is the great level—the base. This is where you find out through sight and smarts how to find out your existence. Your process of action and your drive and goals are not getting any younger. Do not be stuck in any desire, such as not being good enough. Collect feelings you like and are condemned to have. Have a patient spirit to force lifestyles from the greatly figuring aspect to use at will and to be adapted for thought of teaching. To grow quickly, develop your knowledge of how fast you can get around the briars , traps, and holes.

Wild demons in the dark surroundings are always most definitely trying new, evil ways to keep you stopped. The great site of glory and life to reach at the big top; change it over and over until it's changed for America.

Once up so far, look back to see that all that pain that was in life and prosperity to reach and perfect for all.

With wild demons in the surroundings of your everyday struggle, a constant American victory will help the life a lot more, for it always will be there, and staying on the honest side will give you the whole reason Jesus died for you. This is very important; failure will start happening otherwise, and that will give the devil power to grow again, and the great Lord does not want that. So keeping the main thing and learning it to grow is crucial, as are your time, your goals, your thoughts, and your life for American trail. Do not quit!

LEVELS TO MAKE

mountain for the future comes every day. If compacted daily this will be something with determination and glory made in your time and again. Keep something to show, live, attack to make things better, and love to have others start with you. Climb into your mind's knowledge from every trail. Have some enthusiasm and perseverance in the thought of one goal of making. For knowing and adapting from what is already collected will be more powerful to use on that trail than it will if you combine it all into your drive and life. While you're constantly reaping what you sow, absolutely know you are making a life so that you can love in it and American pride. Being able to push weak demons daily and pretty easily conquer the hard evil forever.

A test of life and endurance helps your soul and your clarity of mind. But at no one place in your time is there a point to put your finger on. Remember that life is what you and only you can make it from your start. Figure, your thought process and what will weaken you to stay strong on your eternal way. What will a heartbeat do with the life of what your mind will deliver to life and make to share? Patience and the way you can open your mind is a great trail in itself. The basic tool of starting to attract and show again in time is another trail of peace of mind. What you want your life to be like is a trail that makes up your mind to start the perfecting process. After time and working your mind and body give to you a reason, you will find your reasons of what is the moment of breath.

SO MANY

Many fruitful thoughts can only be set up and administered under the pressure of doing them. When you and you alone are ghostly, you are making things happen for humanity. Knowing you can lead means starting with the small things where small things accumulate, for that is the least and the drive for the top, the fence, the goalie, a homerun, and great destiny. Holding thoughts that people can only talk about and making them happen would not be done to observe if that thought did not come to life if not pushed.

Anything you do is life, and anything you don't do is never seen. That is why life is short and forgotten, for a sin builds by what it sees you to be; this is the way it is in a lot to people's lives. Find and search for life, for it will crush you into a cage. Make people feel what you think. Stay on the mountain that takes you there, for there is always a way. Only you can control your goals and life without a destiny starting.

It is now or never, so make it to love, for you will be free and content in your happiness. If you don't, you can't say what you did on that climb. Life starts dying when you are born, so don't choke. Why hide? That is where evil lies. Show your best of life, and use that as a thought to reach others what they are not thinking about life. Stand up for your faith and love, and don't be scared, for life is consistently a fight.

Don't quit or stop, for you are doing it when you start. Dunt, Dunt, Dunt, Da! It is almost the magic of what is forgotten. Once you are in it, it needs to be cleaned, for evil still remains. Do your best and think of the way to share. Doing is a thing at the time, and something done has been made. Did not times change and things still exist? That's why it's cool to start now. This is a great thought for humanity to share. Pass it on, for this is a life of another. A fun ounce hit, if studied patiently and long enough and if it is fixated on one thing, after studied in your sight with time and perseverance, will make small things build up. Be back and knuckles down to the ultimate to help the people when necessary, for only the Lord knows. A way to stay alive and grow while still putting time in on the first thing is to glimpse at times from years ago, for the smart answer of life is to adapt too. This could be Alexander the Great speaking to the world years later. for how did he survive through his life to be remembered for a very long time?

Come, caring people; we can do it forever; just stick to this book of and for remembrance of what you have to study by making your own trail for humanity in America's way and helping lives.

JUST THINK

With belief comes integrity, faith, truth, and love. You must dig into belief, and on the way, you find strength. You also will find stamina and other ways to go around hard obstacles. Persevere in faith, love, integrity, and knowledge; prove that you believe it will be a glory and hardship, but it is not everything. Just being can be so. If you willingly do it your own way, you will prove something to life and others that will cause you to believe. Know it is crucial to stay on the right and proper direction while taking inclinations, seeing them, and acknowledging them into reality. It is painful for a long time, but it is a spell to time and stamina. Focus on your way, for your loved ones, and be faithful in your belief and gratitude. How do you think things are established and credited to this society and life until things happen? This is how, and people can only talk. Everyone has options and beliefs in his or her way. Belief is how the world is still growing with new and exciting ways for things to happen and persevere and go back to Christ. Amen. That is who the world loves, and he still has the word integrity by adhering to a code of value. People look and find the truth.

The greatest thing is love of life, and thought is very important in beginning and finding a constant increase in knowledge of the growth. Stay the trail and stay clear of the evil one.

There is no feeling that can come close to the feeling you get in achieving the knowledge of the great life, in looking for a true human being—an American—or in keeping the things in life growing with love, strength, and perseverance with a knowledge of goals wisdom, achievements, and pride for others. To really dig into life and know the good, solid, young, and foolish is a feeling in itself. To keep on keeping on to glorify knowledge, and faith, love, and life is another feeling. The great feeling of hope driving you to obtain goals is another way you can hold in your humility and your speech to come closer to realizing that great feeling inside time and again. A journey to opening, receiving, difference, nobility, wisdom, faithfulness, love, knowledge, proper life, and cherishing allows you to hold and show with no fault or mishap actually being made. Do not listen to falsehoods and do not listen to bull while letting others turn themselves gradually closer to the way it should be. You push, getting all your priorities laid out legitimately and working on them and never returning to the wrong way of thinking, for you know that you are gone and that you will be cleaning your fate for years and so on. It would be more than a life to hang your hat on; it would be an epic display of what a great thinker and human can do with what is right, just, true, and honorable to grasp at new thoughts from above. For by watching for what you can reach, knowing if you don't, and conquer life goals, you can never say you didn't try. This will help to make it your destiny forever. It is a glorious feeling, an honest feeling, a wise feeling, a knowledgeable feeling, and a gracious, loving feeling that is never returned to waste or stupidity. Make others proud of knowing you and of hearing your name and your voice. For life is very fruitful if you uphold your soul and your body of what is right to make your way genuinely and uniquely, for angels are listening, and they are clarifying your thoughts while you add and administer life never seen in this way. You hit upon crucial ways with which you pursue knowledge for more, and with patience you know there are more ways to show and do things. Find a way to like more to hit, and keep more close to your heart while growing. Then you are stuck in the great life, and you can't get out whether you know or do not know to get out of the utmost feeling of what life is suppose to be. Being strong enough to stay steadfast would be a start, and it is something only you would know in your own way. You will go through levels patiently in time while containing only your work of thought through life and those in your surroundings, and you will always be looking for strength, knowledge, prosperity, life, and the great Lord forever.

How many initial, strong life feelings do you have to make people feel before they understand? Have an adventurous spirit and the endurance to fight, battle, and believe the truth. To stand up and do is not forgotten; nor is to add to and administer. All of this is done while staying on the trail, even at extremely hard parts, for that is how things get recognized and made. From least to the most is the righteous way—the true, honest way—so you are with trail after much pain and determination to get something moving and to make a life to live for.

Always keep your nose to the grind stone and always have enigmas or inclinations to rearrange and be steadfast with. All of this is done to make a voice and to reach people right in a never-ending train of thought while knowing and believing something will be made and shown for a fresh start of things to accomplish. Your mind, starting with thought, can be cleansed as easily as a shower can clean your body. Start looking for purity in what is fun to do; there is life and joy to reach. There is a fine line between things to realize. Do them truly right instead of the way generations did for your trail. This is a new, cooler, faster, lovable, safe way of having fun. It is strange at first, but a good feeling later. An extreme must is a new trail for America to start small.

Maybe this is not new, but it is increasing another start again from the faraway truth. How long will it be before these astonishing things are fulfilled? Only God knows when and why.

FOUR YEARS IN BRAIN INJURY

Life was paralysis, but is still a journey of feeling, determination, strength, feelings obtained, and thought of knowledge slowly being received in pieces. A great maze of all thought is continually accumulating in the saying, "life is what you make it," and "failure is not an option for endurance." Lots of trial, pain, and perseverance through the highest card and faith can be an epic display of what a soul can attack with charisma, glory, and knowledge of life. To imagine the possibilities of what a soul can accomplish and know, gets hard and painful because you must keep all your great thoughts and what is heard from above in a constant battle of victory of life. The closer you grow to your own trial, goals, etc., the more the life, with total belief in its mysterious ways, rewards you with your maturity, for better reply in firm administration into the best of life.

Build strength in your mind and keep pressing on to the personal glory without getting scared and without getting lost, overwhelmed, crazy, or forgetful without looking to stay away from stupid and weird hatred. Lose, choke, and forget. Stay on your trail to defeat evil in spite of actions and goals that are shared and spread to grow purer for the circulation to grasp.

In just doing it, bring life to be heard on what is yours to share, and make something delivered seen, for a thought can live without death. Remember the alternative of loving life, and make a trail in your personal brain for knowledge to stand upon. Carry your own American flag on top of evil in America. Stick by what we stand for. Make freedom a must, and make it evil-free by bringing the Lord Jesus to life in your heart and spreading your trail.

For when this tiger comes across the devil's pit, it will jump right over it with stamina and great, faithful glory to climb its own trail up to the great Lord where no pain and prosperity for eternity will be.

The pain of constantly looking for, staying close to, and studying the difference in your own vision means climbing and absorbing wisdom on the way for your own trail. Just what can you put in your soul and heart to defend it as a crown?

Knowing that you let it in cannot just be walked away from, for that is as hard as making someone breathe.

Your own making and keeping it real and true brings your life's realm, sight, power, strength, and thought together as a thoroughbred dream to reach and obtain. Do it now without evil and extend your own trail for the world.

Your heart and mind are strong, your ideas are great, and your surroundings are pure, with no regrets of evil. This brings patience of your positive new atmosphere, new thoughtful reaches, and grasps of goals to strive for, accumulate, and make for time and space. Have belief and great joy to the world because America is well worth fighting for, and know that freedom and prosperity is number one.

TO BE TRIUMPHANT

Being triumphant comes from being what you made yourself out to be and by studying the best way of your walk. Practice makes perfect in any sport, study, or constant goals. Excellence in any art, sport, or profession is made by hard and persistent work. It is a matter of choice for your life. There is no triumph that has no difficulties. Well done is better than well said. After time, study, perfection, excellence and triumphant times come.

Desire is a key for motivation and determination in the unrelenting pursuit of a commitment to your goals through which you show and reach. This enables you to attain success and the triumphant ways of life you climb and seek. This is a life trail and an overwhelming pursuit to your top for your family and yourself and America.

Since the first time you are adapted to the next and are seen and known, you are made a triumphant person by climbing and by studying your way. It is finally in you to administer your excellence to the great life you strive for. This is the most fruitful goal of your existence. You are too far back and too close to slow down and stop, give up or quit. Think, think, think, administer, prove yourself, administer, think, and administer your best time and again, etc. Strive, reach, climb, win, be truthful, be faithful, and love character and stamina. Search, look, watch, observe, focus, and keep on keeping on to share your trail.

See deep in your soul, focus on the ultimate life inside, and persevere to change your mind about what used to be thought. Believe in what you seek to change and know the difference. Start to love your life for others and for your life, knowing there is hope, love, life, and cherishing to have on your climb. In your life's mind, leave a persevering thought in people's minds, and absolutely be adapted to and knowledgeable of study for triumph and the great feelings it brings to grow. For it is set and golden for the making of your own trail's excellence of. Some people are dreaming of the way, and just giving up and others are awake and on them in their way. Reach, study, and accomplish more. Stick out and say the truth, constantly gathering ultimate life and ways to reach. Feel a new destiny for America and what can be forever. Be triumphant.

IT SEES

It constantly now on and knows ahead of the feeling of you. Make and collect and calculate for all yours. Testing, looking, and helping to make life and love before your thought. It does not stop, for it is always further than the time and existence your thing is able to reach in the stable life of set humanity. It knows ahead of what you are doing, and it gives you the basis of your actions before you get there. Testing your way and love is always in the push, and it loves the good accumulated extra pushes you make. Accept too much knowing that the test has a set barrier for you, for it is yours to understand how to reach its way. Who is it to say you should reach it? You, the reader, the one to focus and study, making your own trail.

Since it does not see your insides, thank God, for over time, with growth adapting you through your personal inner pain, it starts to see your search, your seeking, and your motion of endurance for the great truth. The great Lord is a master at this, and patience is the threshold.

It does see your reach, which is phenomenal, and it can't just happen overnight, but it is watching.

It sees your all and your truth, and the Lord is watching it, for collecting is the fine line to study and adhere to there in your soul and heart. It will come to after being studied for a time.

Figure, attack, seek, make, and patiently continue keeping on to follow the master in the sky, and know and climb for the big, wondrous truth hidden by the devil that is keeping you from the most powerful life.

ALWAYS A CONSTANT

KKeep a constant approach on your main thing for the way even though it gets hard sometimes. Keep your faith, drive, strength, and perseverance regarding the fact of the matter. You and your family are going to destroy the main priority and the knowledge it brings. Know that if you don't conquer, you cannot pursue your point. You will fall and stick in waste, sorrow, and pain of loss. So keep your head up and keep on your mind and your body will feel it, and now you will stay ahead of the game and your way of life for all to see. Everything in your surroundings will feed off your presents. Go, Go, Go, knowing there is hope in pride and knowledge. Keep on, and know as you keep on that there is a light at the end of the tunnel, a silver cloud behind every storm, and a bright place to enjoy at the end of the road.

THERE IS LIFE IN LIFE

Your trail, your knowledge, your destruction of evil, your breath, and your grace bring unknown life back to patient ways and inner truth for goals of American victory abroad.

Choose life every time with power, charisma, and faith. Find your own trail with the Lord Jesus on top, where glory and great life is pure.
Your American flag blowing in the wind for happiness and growth. It is all in what you make it, for it is personal for everyone to defend like a soldier's ghost.

It is now, and every trail beads down the evil alternative through the space for the future. The power of a tiger making the new way through hell on earth and an American flag being climbed to makes American evil abolished, for wars and prosperity will ring beside your own trail, for the flag will stand forever.

AMERICAN

The life is so good, but it is attacked by evil because it needs a way to grow, a force and capture through space of reach, some way to grow with thought and action. By thought and action of the little things, a team is administered and built, and new prosperity is set by beginning the call of making freedom ring.

Outwit the wittier like America; think pure; stay pure; set genuine American goals for the team. Do what the afar is doing—just loving to get to this great land. Being free and helping by making your own trail is a way not seen, but actions do speak louder than words, for the main thing is going through hell to get to heaven. What soldiers are doing with guns and attacks can be done by Americans to find and make their own trail to defeat evil forever.

Through pain, through the air, through the glory, through the sight, and through the constant effort and the storm of what crosses, keep your mind open; keep it growing, keep it alive, and stick to your goal's destiny when you are totally disgusted and blue. Develop and adapt your knowledge in front of you; remember the worst. Grow from knowing someone all the time when they are in pain all the time and would give anything to live, or move out of what they stupidly and mistakenly reaped for the worse, for bad things will always happen in low and weird times.

But even small things, such as a smile, can change attitudes. Little things that are good for your soul are actually starting blocks used to dig you out of the evil of bitterness and sorrow. Stand, dig, get passionate, get straight, get true, and know you can accomplish many things still.

While walking on the level hit for noticable newness with feelings getting stronger to faster, adapting to a little happiness is going to get better. Making it in time keeps you still patient and lively. Staying and admiring new sights on that noticed level with new accomplishments gives you more breath and stamina to get to. Believe the next is even more glorious, with new and more exciting manifested traps to climb through. Patience to figure and make the next level is the antidote, and only life presented from knows it. Keep every level you must go through in your heart, and do know not to wear yourself out. Have the wisdom to restrain and adapt to make yourself ready for your next made level. You now should have gratitude and strength to perfect any level crossing your path. Steer clear still from all demons in the brush. Inside strength and perseverance, you build up on rough and rolling levels. This is the work in your soul that will never leave. You should know that they will always fire at will and that they will always have it the worst.

Anticipating details of your new growing thoughts makes a better, truthful, outstanding survivor. An American, for most, does this; that is why we are free. Picture hanging a thoughtful human flag on the top of the greatest mountain in your life when you get there. So get yourself to finish strong on every level, for you won't know when the alternate top will come.

A most powerful life trail of great reward is always the top of your immediate life. Never take your eye off your dream, and foresight of future awareness. Perseverance wins your life to share with others. A fine line between heaven and hell and determination of thought exists to be held close to your heart forever.

For you have kids that are depending on your trail and the things of greatness you make and achieve in life and also that you can give good, solid advice to keep them from the evil you know about, for there is a trail to follow, and the more you climb, the more you will know at every level.

To move a mountain and build your faith away from evil, you must know how to climb, for there is always a way to go through hell to get to heaven. It sees, watching your whole life, which is a wonderful thing, but it is short and well planned for life. It knows automatically and calculates existence, figures and establishes the main ingredient to survive, and lives through it while watching.

Your thought in putting your brain, heart, and soul in focus is painstaking and heart wrenching compared to not being your truest while the goal is life that is deep blue the whole way through.

Thought is acknowledged in the midst to grasp, collect, and keep searching to find it and make it seen in the midst. That's why it cannot see inside, but it is collecting the source, and it sees the makeup of your own trail.

Starting in America the free in the midst of war for the homeland to set, we as America will defend something very good. Collecting the good and true life you can do, and new prosperities destroy evil, making your own trail honest and true by actions. Every trail counts. They are not all seen, but they are known by the great Lord, who is always here, and America the free will do it. We in America have the American flag to put on top of evil, and the Lord Jesus is with you to make your own trail for the glory on top with the Great Lord, who knows your needs for more strength.

A COBWEB OF KNOWLEDGE

Who is weaving this endless, nonstop web of extreme. Feeling like a monkey going from web to web, collecting on everyone and building strength on the way with visions of happiness and freedom pushing on the outer. Let only good webs in, as you are focused straight, and growing of your own mind and thought.

More of your main push to the next web comes only from your inner drive and faith as you swim through the webs. Only your initial feelings being absorbed by the growth inside that are accumulating for building, and getting closer to what the next web will bring that which is initially felt before passing through into your personal thinking of your thought from the get-go.

Every web is noticed by all webs, making them all stronger for whatever the whole web is as it's one web is shooting and making the big web better for all webs to understand and making it possible for the webs to strive on their own. Life after my personal brain, with an attack pushing from the Lord, can do this from within.

Where is set prosperity in the web of knowledge? Only stopping in deep sleep.

REALISTIC

A daunting, painful experience of a great new way from so many old sayings comes into your mind and soul. Your dream might just be over the next level of determining from so many goals from your brain. What is collected in you and administered without failure could be number one, or it could just be another time on your new outstanding thinking and thoughts of perseverance on the trail you are making. All of these come into play when needed and are glorified by life when necessary in the time of notice.

Be and become really smart about figuring your walk for others. Still hang on to what must be done for people. Since life is always there and gradually understanding the way to be started, only the Lord knows. Maybe you are a superstar, a nominee winner, a movie maker, or a writer to reach readers; go and find what your new life is from your trail after making it. If your feelings stay in you to grow, it's in your blood, and you don't just let it go anywhere. Build your trail and administer your trail to share it with the true America, and learn more to be wise and righteous.

Even in depth of life, always think and figure to make and hit what is most true, honor able, and great in order to make and listen for a good understanding in that time. This is a learning power point for the next to grab and love while climbing. You understand after studying, listening, catching on, and not quitting in your patience. Goals are made and thoughts focused. With feelings great and demons gone, it is a world of yours to help and know to live. You are getting it better over and over, not letting go, not getting lost, and proving to yourself that it can be done and that there is always a way when you persist.

Your sight will get focused and your knowledge will grow; experience of the familiar feeling will stick. To sour up the trail past not waiting on or close to, or breathing through levels, and wrong trails to follow.

For through all, you are still focused on concentrating on and determined to make your own trail of your life. You are honest, true, straight, faithful, outstanding, and making life different and totally true for America and the world.

Attack with great thought and purpose in patience to figure out how, and administer time and again for perseverance. Your deeds will be great to share, only getting better like life can and will, for you are making it your trail.

PUSHING MY VISION

In your own thought comes visions, but these visions are the purest after beating the Grim Reaper and keeping them to tell from their initial interception and study. No one sees how you see them, for they are personal and your own.

Unless some power makes you keep them after they have manifested and been studied, write them patiently over time to spread the great news. That is how to find a way, for no guts, no glory. Focus deep and bring them to study in time.

Every brain is a person of its own, and it needs knowledge, life, love, and total belief all its life. So many do this by knowing, keeping, thinking, learning, believing, and growing to know and spread to more brains faithfully, purely, and without evil.

P.S. Faithfully push to study your own trail and make it.

INTENSE CLIMBING

Keep intense thinking; intense, deep determination; deep life; and deep everything to pursue and stay with the making of your own trail of unexpected actions of your insides to grasp, hold, and patiently produce what life has shown you in your own trail. Hit your goals with smoothness, knowing you are intensifying no evil and newer purity in them. Always focus on and study your initials, which manifest for help from the great Lord. All around you, always keep the thought of prosperity up your sleeve for constant life again for your one chance to be.

With demon armor on and Jesus on your mind, you are able to soar up and climb with great intensity and defend the way for America. Knowing the fine line and the difference, go back to the homestead, back to the threshold, back to your livelihood, and back to happiness. Make your own trail.

PUSHING A VISION

In your own thought, vision and joy happen. Do you have to let them pass or just take them as life? No one knows your own unless you dig it into their sight, and you can't do it in a split second. That is how; find how you are going to bring it to life. For "no guts, no glory" does not have to be the way members of society believe just to be groupies. Focus on the deep, and bring it out in time studied. Brains and people have their own surroundings all their life, which is what they would make, and they would be noticed for it. They kept their own vision pushed. For using your brain and your motion by digging in and rearranging your vision will, with your own trail staying with it, attack what is so faithfully yours for new life to love without evil, death, and punishment.

Doing what you say automatically brings more to your future, no matter what. You are life, and you get to go, to do something, multiply and adapt to what is in your mind. Make and show how motion in vision and breath adds to your existence for your own trail is achieved, for it will be felt and studied. As an American stays, defeats, outsmarts, and proves his trail is not such a far-off thought, America is making a new horizon plan and trail. Your trail in the mist is a most rewarding one-shot thought to prolong human nature's circulation.

The ball is a demon to knock and hit over the fence—your sight and life of family and friends. Find your vital turn and abraising it with trail to shine. Believe and trust what is acknowledged to your soul and heart by your majestic thinking which allows you to survive your own trail of strength, breath, and life unseen. The result is a miracle crucial to life; it is a trail of life to destroy evil in the world of America that can be obtained. Let's put more pride in the country by climbing and making our own trails.

Keep your word; the Lord needs you to stand true to your word. Fakes are evil, and their words are also intended to avoid making commitments to those most true and honorable.

Your greatest power point in life is to make and study with patience and from your heart and soul. Making your own trail in life is something no one but yourself holds and has for America, and your prosperity contains no evil. The greatest feeling of life that was never felt lies in every soul being distorted by the devil. It is important to think and hold to attack and make your own trail on your own, for the Lord is watching, and he will reward what you can't see now, and he has the power to help you obtain your new goals with guts and glory. The attack of crucial, personal newness administers to persevering on your own. No human can see you make your own trail for life now.

Classic feelings are great for their trail and the feeling it gives, for that is a feeling of hope, pride, and many feelings—feelings to pass through and absorb for life. In humans, thought comes from the brain, and a time of action without evil can make it pursue. To have drive, reach, determination, strength, faith and shining tiger demon armor is to make the demons understand and destroy evil. The great Lord is always.

Your trail to stand on is a most pure truth. Push the trail that is life with your visions, for it is not without a price and is always life—the truth without logic. Use your own good sense to make each day count for the gift we have been given in God, in whom we trust, as America makes and grows eternal love and as you make your own trail for goose bumps that will not pop, but are exhilarating to grow and have.

The fine line is life to life, love to love, goals to goals, growth to growth, make to make, peace to peace, study to study, breath to breath, and new to new.

It is important to keep an open mind to see your personal miracles only to add to your mind basin for determination.

The truth does not lie; it is how you make your own trail from the persevering utmost in your time to hit and hold, to grow your archeological treasure for your personal cherished turn, and to hit the big life switch. Just never quit, and believe, believe, believe to climb and shoot for no failure with patience, and destroy any evil you can with tiger mantis faith and charisma. Keep above the devil's ways of life.

INNER

The deep, deep voice is seldom heard unless you live in your thoughts and hear to analyze patiently in order to attack from the stem. The growing get-go builds and stays as a reminder of determination in your goal, your life, your reach, your being, and your trail. Be produced from your inner soul's drive, which is focused on as a great threshold in you. Always clean with thought as speed and smarts automatically are made, adapted to, climbed, and pursued to make your own trail for America the free.

The one that could be a figment of your imagination is the fine line between heaven and hell, and you must stay in touch with it to grow and achieve the use of it so that you can bring that life back that only a human can glimpse at while alive. The talking heard in the dark, in the basement, and in the attic tells you to attack, to keep on keeping on to the top of your own personal trail, and to develop knowledge in the soul of the human being of eternity. For experienced loved ones, life, in a nut shell, beckons you to attack your visions and reach into your inner self to reach from the inside out from the depths of the start, the depths of your drive, the depths of your reach, and the depths of your existence.

Your outfitting for reasons of success and of being loyal, which can only be proven under tests of charisma, strength, belief, and drive make the capacity for growth in America.

A LITTLE, BUT BIG, SOMETHING

Doing it for the thought, and so you did. Know that if you don't, you cannot ever say you did, and it is all in what you make it. Ambitious or not, the growing enormity not noticed is initially seen by the Lord. Go to dire lengths to commence and emphasize manifestation, and be to life as a ghost behind thought—a nonstop growth that makes itself and shows itself in the air as something not seen by the naked eye. The truth, the start, the ambition, and the initial growth of knowledge are manifested.. Only in a glimpse as a memory to keep on and climb and do, can a natural human can make it.

Is this from my coma? Is this the start? Is this the truth? Remembrance and inner thought work with life to master and prove big. Grasp to walk through while absorbing so new thoughts are manifested in other eyes to be seen and initially understood. Knowing what's next, doing what's next, striving in life, strengthening, making, climbing, persevering, and loving the way are all important.

The generations that would understand this and realize what the trail means would add great perfection to life's prosperity. Their great new ways are showing the new to that which is constantly growing in it and constantly adding outstanding trails while never seeing evil or a failure to manifest into life.

You are not able to stop time, but you can embrace, set trails, and glorify for remembrance, for if you hadn't done that, the next generation would never have been able to know and make the trail better.

THE POWER OF THE TIGER

Whatever is good is good at developing your one-shot thinking. This is crucial to the next step, as the cycle is still here and will be forever. One of the most powerful forces in the human is a brain doing it for life and thought and not overlooking the opportunities of the present. So this is crucial to master by making your own trail through the power of prayer, study, endurance, striving, and reach. There is no loudspeaker, so you need to give it over somehow to spread the news.

The abominable great tiger faith of this prosperity's feeling absolutely knows of the total belief in pursuing and delivering to spread and totally demolish evil demons and their starts, for they do tell their friends. Do this over and over for the great feeling of doing it for the future of the world with our great Jesus and God on your side. Pierce and push the greatest feelings on the trail that are initially pushed for digging and making better the truth, for the truth is truth, and demons are not. Life needs this, and your grandchildren also need it now!

Dig, fight, think, and don't be scared of making and reaching whatever it is you need for your next level, for there is always a way. Especially at your strongest moments of keeping on, do not falter and stop; build in to master, and pursue still.

You cannot rush the great story that is not seen to bring it back to what may have been forgotten.

In relation to that, there is always a way you can be a tiger—a great, holy tiger that destroys evil and demons of all kinds and gives the great Lord growth in the fight with the very weak devil after being attacked by tigers of holy faith and of growing faith that are blessed and on a team that assists you in making your own trail.

Have drive, stamina, charisma, well-being, staying power, and intellect of life. Make believers know that your threshold is nothing permanent except change. Do not change, but persevere until you are made to adapt, and patiently show while growing your trail, for it is genuine. Meanwhile, you're constantly making your own trail with heart, obedience, and thought. Your own trail and life to love and make comes from disaster, mourning, imperfection, pain, injury, mistake, evil and hell, for the devil has access to your mind and thinking, and making your own trail is a way of thought, and climbing patiently with tiger strength to grow and know what is true, noble, right, pure, and loving, are things to have in your mind basin during the climb.

Polish your demon armor, always keep yourself clean, and always be aware of the knowledge accumulated in your own sight from remembrance to make your top, your own life, your mind, and your own trail.

This is a time of study—your study, your life, and your patience—of the difference of your own trail. This is crucial for a clean, thoughtful mind as a demon destroyer, for that is what controls the rest of your body in needing most pure truth virtues, such as thinking, adaptability, and perseverance. At the top is anyone who wants it or needs it and who also, when you build your strength, is seeing when never quitting to go through to the next level. Say this to yourself, for your ability is then to see that is what it is. At every level there is something, and every time you have them, it still is what it is, no matter what it is. See and develop your tiger style for the intent and power of what is to be in the future.

Having demons on lockdown away from you and youth means that you can climb and love so the next who comes will get the picture. With your own and everyone's accumulated greatness, you can do it.

PURE LIFE

Focus on the only feelings in the study of where and how things are in life: sight, hearing, taste, smell, heart, drive, thought, and touch. Let it come across and be manifested in your space, where it is interpreted and absorbed into your constant drive to stay who you are so that you can live, breath, think, and decide. Stay ahead over and over to collect, understand, and be successful for yourself; this would be your drive and life to reach. Stay through hell to let it grow until you can see to decide how well you can feel the extreme noticeable feelings of faith, intensity, and growing initial knowledge of what you learn to interpret initially your way to add and figure, in time, new ways of total life. Know that you need to be heard in your reaching and spreading until it is accomplished and studied by science and great life.

From inner, nonstop figuring of thought and belief, you can determine how to master this and prove to America's people that you can help this initially new life. Stick to your own inner goals to grow, knowing there is always a way to stand up through the bull of doing something and making yourself be something that will stand out for your love of your own trail to make something—something you patiently stick out and make.

The great Lord is the only one that will know your soul. He owns your soul if you ask him, and you will always know that, too.

Collect your thought and train your brain, knowing that your trail will make its own and that it takes time. You and life manifest what you are making to reach new ways and accomplish your goals and achieve intellectual personification of your life to make and love others. Be pure, be true, be thoughtful, be helpful, be honest, and be great and loving at the top. Keep on keeping on. Getting into that and doing that will bring your own soul love, rewards, and prosperity. Just have total belief in your life to make your trail.

STICKING TO YOUR DREAM

Intensity, goals, growth, and stamina reach constant, total belief. In the dreamland, your own to make will be must be overwhelming. Climbing, indurance, knowledge, strength, fighting, and ambition inside, always makes a difference. Thought of how to before and after pressure of life. Think and act on the levels absorbed along the way from your start. Know there is a way against unexplicit odds of knowing your goals, as doing what you say stands and reaches again and again. You will make it back home with great force and great perusing thoughts of knowledge.

Listening for knowledge from the wise trail coming from your inner voice, and know there is no more evil to destroy.

For your patience of the way manifested thoughts of, makes to last into children and intellectually personified to reach most true, for your reach is deep and long, and the trail is great.

Deep, genuine ways lie in the dark, coming together and staying until new ways in the light also become available to make prosperity and freedom. Great new ideas push into life over and over until they all know no difference.

AMBITION

Eager desire for success or power is weird, so the many tries for trail will have to be big one of these times. A truly desirable, persevering, long, thoughtful, truthful ambition of keeping and patiently hoping, growing, and doing is necessary. Consistency to your life's goal, the reach of which no one can see.

Since nothing to hide, do it while the iron is hot alive to hear, for there is a great task at hand. Never mind staying on wasted time things that are said and letting them now know in your life hear now that they will be together on the greatest goal.

It is pushing your day's efforts but the same is just acknowledged, and it is inviting people to think. So the power grows and grows, wanting success to get you moving .

Be modest, honest, true, bright, wise, and thoughtful. Live, make, study, hope, pray, and prove.

Get your life to stay focused after and while great feelings are being manifested through day-by-day thoughts, and try different targets of feelings there with the great life inside , the life of whom your surroundings dream are after. What is your thought for others to notice and acknowledge?

You stay focused and study and study life now and forever. Make life something for others to enjoy, and give them the ambition to grow. Hitting the ball over the fence is the best way to say it, for your reach is everlasting because of the study initially in you. That ambition and drive from you is internal until heard by America and translated or until it's chiseled in stone.

PATIENCE IS THE EPICENTER

You should be reaching, hoping, digging, thinking, loving, making your basin, your thought, your surroundings, your growth, your unseen charity, and your trail. With great faith and demon armor you can make and pursue what has just come from, been delivered to, and been manifested in others while you are unseen as you accumulate your global trail by believing and making it within your reach.

The unseen thing is the good feeling of giving to others just by seeing and hearing about and obeying the thinking enriched by the root and the manifested base it gives. The pain and glory brings good into greatness; know that is it to add to the perfection of your time.

The tiger, climbing and loving praying mantises, and attacking evil demons for the great life , is what America is saying to the war of evil.

WHERE DOES IT LIE?

The fundamental, basic, most critical knowledge is that of thinking about and staying close to life to study where your time, dreams, and deliverance are from; this is coded as your code written from birth. It is up to only you and all who see it as it is to change your life in patient times to make it and lay it on your personal line to make it move anywhere but there. When this is known everywhere around your existence and you can develop the initial plan from a dream to a proof of acceptance to show a decision to make it move on. No humor is in it unless built goals are in it to move it and to let it know to be a trained accelerating push by study. There is much thought and wonder on every level to administer a way as souls acknowledge and deliver theirs.

It will lie in your work, your motion, and your thought of intense truth of discovery you reached in your study of time. Search, reach, study, and build. Learn how to do things and when to do them in your search to make your vision of true human breath and pizzazz. Did you see that? That is the difference in every human and every thought, and Jesus knows before it is, but hold that and survive to be pure. Continue on with the growth needed to control and study in the time of destruction and make your new trail out by searching where you can under your most faithful debut in the strength to pursue with your reach.

FOREVER IT STANDS

Search for the knowledge it brings to share and obtain it in every climb as a personal goal and a personal study to defeat evil, and know when it is starting to keep on, and find your own trail as a refuge for good people, and new Americans will grow with knowledge and grace in a time of war. Keep and set goals to persevere your reach of new experiences, and your search know it. Tiger faith and hard-core armor will make demons retreat, for the great Jesus that knows and the great Lord crown every trail in America the free and the future in life . The dream, the focus, and the vast wideness is in your mind, with life knowing and collecting things in order to make it. Realize that to take it in your spot of eternity and to figure while thinking, striving in your focus of your life with abundant effort is just for that reason. Can you feel belief? The goal will appear, and the time to capture a dream will show when it is always in you and there is a fine line—a difference between all your studies.

Build your faith. Move a mountain to be a human being, to pass a feeling, and to make your own trail. Pain in love is true. Let's go, America, for what must be done now and forever is to learn to spread your own trail. The power of prayer and the power of the Lord above in your tests climbs to the top of making your own trail.

YOU HAVE THE FLAG

You have the flag in your mind and America to set on the top of the mountain of evil and make stay at the top of your time, for life is overwhelming and true. First you must figure out a way to keep and develop your own trail and to dig it in the top to stay, for nothing evil can pull it out, and evil will know to steer and climb away and vanish so new prosperity can start to adapt, conquer, and be triumphant in the times of no more bull.

This is good, solid, pure, and so deeply true for the great truth, the great Lord, and life Eternal.

Pure, genuine life brings a cherished tomorrow. Unlimited, profound, enormous destiny, and generations make their own trails for the globe to realize it can join.

TO GROW

Without focusing on space, time, and the persevering power of prayer, the knowledge from the great Jesus—the extreme mind working year round—would not have any effect. It reaches great thinking, and it builds knowledge, faith, love, and dreams along the way by constantly having and working on your mind basin for truth and purity with no evil and tiger strength to the bone.

Look at this place after it is out of evil; the place is thought also to rearrange by showing the good, and even the great, for angels on every level they're looking at, and you feel what they are working on, and you know. If you try, they would hit you, grab you, and motivate you and your surroundings, for this is a place the Lord controls, and he does it all here. It pushes you up and up and through while absorbing, correcting your personal difference, and being careful while your surroundings follow. Know that in every way, it could be better patiently driving you.

Find your personal height of existence while searching always and editing your thinking, for it counts. Dig for and feel the terror of the faraway soldier just trying, for war is hell. Imagining is all we can do except making your trail. For a way to help for knowledge and no more evil in life starting in America the free for that reason.

Destroy your faith and move a mountain. You must make it final and break the wrong routine. Dig through your thinking and pain, and desire the truth, engulf the life, and obtain your dream forever. The overwhelming life is above you and all around you, for the great Jesus in you knows and is patient.

THE FOCUS

Most critical from the start is thinking in order to find and accelerating to get true, deep, hard-core greatness, as fits in the time of air and the study of a matter, so that you may adapt and conquer to live and exist.

THE DREAM

Is life thinking about goals, ups, and downs? On your ups, keep in mind joy in a ball, a trail, a life, or in mind without hearing, but by proving lives along the way without evil, for the things you do to reach a dream, thought—as life—does for control of the make . And things take time, so it is all up to the great Lord and you.

THE VAST WIDE

In your mind, with sight and hearing, know and collect the inclinations in order to make and take those things that cross to figure vile thinking on the focus of your life just for that reason. Can you feel belief? The goal will, and the dream will show if it's always in you. And there is a fine line—a difference between all your sight.

A FOCUSED MIND

Of the most powerful forces in the university of human civilization is the great Lord Jesus, who initially has great power in your existence. Flip the big life switch with a patience of knowledge, climbing, studying, and focusing. Master an everlasting trail as not to overlook it by studying your own opportunities. Start your climb to reach the top by focusing with constant, patient effort.

Focus through the tears, the pain, and the sweat. Begin climbing, making, showing, and digging for a goal, for it will come. You must still always be critical, for you must master a great trail of an epidemic and any goal set in mind with the initial manifested feelings that are crossed by you in your time to share your life, to live, and to make by pushing the truth.

Do this through nauseating pain, climbing, and making a most loving, prosperous, great trail. The bottom's up to you. It can be how and why you live to reach the top to show your own trail.

COME ON

There is a whole array that encompasses most human feelings. So while alive and determined with your patience and study, get to the great top. On the way, listen and study through the bull to prove your utmost inside feelings to the world like anything that is here for all. You have to—you must—establish and make your dream so that it can bring you to the life your immediate family needs, and so it can be shown for life and America.

Feel it grow for an old, familiar feeling of greatness and cheer. The golden role of thought is perseverance and reach. This is a once-in-a-lifetime chance to quickly help the America in you .

Now, no matter what, America needs your best forever. Dig in and find that there are reasons behind reasons. That is a determining thing to drive your reach. This is at the top also, so feel the life in that to stay away from the destruction of no-good feelings that will bring you down into a demon hole. Only you can decide on remembering choices. Wise, solid choices make it while it accumulates and goes on. Attack while patience is pure, and life will keep you as a memory for America and for your brothers, sisters, mother and father for life. Only to pursue God knows why!

How many initial, strong life feelings do you have to make people feel before they understand? Have an adventurous spirit and the endurance to fight, battle, and believe the truth. To stand up and do is not forgotten; nor is to add to and administer. All of this is done while staying on the trail, even at extremely hard parts, for that is how things get recognized and made. From least to the most is the righteous way—the true, honest way—so you are with it after much life and determination to get something moving and to make a life to live for.

Always keep your nose to the grind stone and always have enigmas or inclinations to rearrange and be steadfast with. All of this is done to make a voice and to manifest to people right from wrong in a never-ending train of thought while knowing and believing something will be made and shown for a fresh start of things to accomplish. Your mind, starting with thought, can be cleansed as easily as a shower can clean your body. Start looking for purity in what is fun to do; and there is life and joy to reach. There is a fine line between things to realize. Do them truly right instead of the way generations did them. This is a new, cooler, faster, lovable, safe way of having fun. It is strange at first, but a good feeling later. An extreme must is a new apathy for life; start small in America.

Maybe this is not new, but it is increasing what is started again from the faraway truth. How long will it be before these astonishing things are fulfilled? Only God knows when and why.

Intensity and overwhelming determination keep the mountain in your mind and life growing into something to be in forever. Repent when you trip to achieve a better climb every time you cross more terrain and come upon obstacles to pass through.

Press on and be bold. Gather strength to keep on keeping on and to make life better. The level is a masterpiece to have for a study. Gather effort to give it to the next site, and dream to make it in sight of life. There is no time for petty ways that will welcome evil in to slow you down in your patient time of thought. Keep your faith and drive for the reach you are making over and over to get platinum. It is only you and God on your way up, through, and across for he is keeping mean demons out of your woods and your brush, and these demons have set tripwires. After you have made your crucial trips happen, you start to be almost numb to the way of your new, exciting life you made. You see, when you're with God, all things are possible. For at times it is vigorous, relaxing, and rearranging, but stay on the trail, knowing the great making will happen.

Oh, the great, painful desire that grows over time and the great joys and fun of keeping the mind learning. Oh, to feel and almost see different rays of colored life coming in and growing. When the trail is, and seems, all uphill, you're confident too, and the weight is the most, and the thought is foggy, for you want to smile, but you only sigh, and care is smashing you. Rest where you have a basin, but don't you quit. You are close, and you are nearer after many failures have come and gone; your study will stick it out. The silver storms of turning doubt never can tell how close you are; it may be close when it seems so far. Stay on the trail of your hardest drive, for it's when things are worse that you are not to quit, for great achievement will prevail, and demons of all sorts will fail.

To make believers in truth, don't lie, and making a trail of your own will prevail. Get up and go, for life needs you to hear that you can do it. Push your growth into the everyday future of today. Remember: climbing, shining, and protruding give you knowledge that will not lie as a sin.

An intelligent trail is found amid storms of thought and discouragement and tears. Dig and share your best thoughts again, and even again. Through hardship and grouping for life, you cross for the victory of daily life. Dedicate your mind and body to think best for grace and cheer. Stay out of the victim hole, and grow to achieve profound success for a new life of not faltering as a victim of anything.

Find what is in human thought and strength of desire to obtain the life where you fit to survive what you can and will.

THE LIST OF NO RETURN

First things first, like always. Whatever you're thinking, grab them all and keep them. As fast as your body and mind can do that, rearrange them into the best of what you have. Keep them and do that as you go, remembering that it would not be the way it should be if you did not do that thing to make something happen. It would be the way your body, your mind, your thoughts, and your everything show you what you can do. Force yourself to go through all the feelings of spirituality as you do it. It would be your personal way of living, and always moving to the next step of what you created. Say you want to do something outstanding and don't know where to start because you know there are others. It is really hard to think of what you would do to compete and win while knowing it would take all of what you have. But remember, if you and your soul can do it, it is better for humanity. It would be the hardest thing in your life, but it would be so great to always finish. It would be your way and the way of whomever is with you. It is a way of fighting at life, getting to the top of life and rebounding, never returning to yourself, and being so hurt like us all while you are there. It would be like what you did to get yourself into it. Always stay with what you started and created to show the other ones that are doing it for change. Even when you get there, you know to try your darnedest to protect that, as it's your best. Sooner or later it is never to return. You are past the law of probability. It would be a never-ending battle of spirituality, strength, wisdom, hope, dreaming, conquering, and life. To read this would be your start of no return in your mind. Most people forget they have mind and soul. Since nothing is easy, why not?

If you could imagine the possibilities, it would be the way to keep at something until even the smallest thing is changed. That would be your start of something to make and perfect. Try as long as it takes to be the best of the best. This would be a whole lot of changing in itself. It would be at least one thing in life, as human.

IS SOMETHING—ANYTHING—THERE?

How do you get anything to endure, to realize, to have, and to obtain a dream of opportunity or something to believe in? Stand up and start climbing along your own trail to make, show, and prepare for America and the Lord of life. There is a constant battle to be won, and a difference of all. Take one stuttering step at a time, patiently climbing, learning, growing, and preparing a great, knowledgeable mind basin to deliver your cherished dreams with an attack of passion and constant effort to endure. Intensely focus on visions remembered to fulfill and develop your trail for the great America and soldiers at war..

Ever since the bottom of the trail and faithfully hustling to absorb what something other than evil is. Know that there is constant life to teach how to stay out of hell on earth, for nothing is easy, and advice is set to acknowledge your way to reach it and teach it, for all life levels count like family. Crucial trail to stay after, from and knowing how to hold and use, to sour and shine. Evil needs to realize to stay away for the eternity of life, so life can prosper without distraction, and just one person can't do that himself. Hear, see, attack, persevere, and prosper continuously, making your own trail, for the constant time of the future is here and now forever and ever.

ENDURE

There is always a battle to be won—a way to make, endure, stand up, be heard, and be. Pass through believing, growing, and finding your climb; this is the way to show. Intense focus is absorbed and seen in time to show and grow. Hustle with patience to reach and show. Feelings of desperation, belief, truth, and dreams can be obtained. Driving with determination what is absorbed in your climb while living and explained this purely to the Maker. Honest and true is the great life learned in you. There are always goals to pursue while nature is so true. The trail keeps away evil; there is never a chance for evil to protrude.

No bull, as in giving nutritional supplements to what life is overlooking and forgetting.

No bull, as in not letting something steal the very thought you're thinking, the very breath you take, and the very life you are dedicated to. Stand up and be with tiger-mantis faith.

No bull, as you must forgive, for that is what it is.

No bull, as it is the most, and it will be accelerating in you.

No bull, as in resisting the devil and feeling it to make your own trail.

No bull, as in not being scared, but only asking the Lord for patience of your own power.

No bull, as in thought-out goals for what you wish to be like.

No bull, as in needing something to see and to keep it as a reminder that you are doing it.

No bull, as in making sure not to fall into bull-building strength.

No bull, as in believing and pushing and believing until you know to adapt and attack and to build character, stamina, faith, strength, vision, and to keep on keeping on for America, for the soul, and for tiger faith destroying evil in the world.

No bull, as to obtain a dream for dreams on earth.

No bull, as in the truth being most pure without evil.

No bull, as staying loyal, patient, and open.

Do what you say, no matter what automatically brings more to your future. You are life, so get to doing something. Multiply and adapt closer to what is in mind. Make and show, for the way in which motion in vision and breath adds to you existence for your own trail as an American will be felt, studied, and achieved. It defeats, outsmarts, and proves their trail not such a long thought when America is making a new plan and trail on the horizon. Your trail in the mist is a most rewarding, persevering, single-shot thought to prolong human nature's circulation.

The ball is a demon to knock and hit over the fence. This is your sight and life of family and friends. Finding your majestic thinking and surviving your own trail for strength, breath, and life unseen results in a miracle crucial to life. The world can obtain from America a trail of life to destroy evil. Put more pride in the country by climbing and making your own trail.

Keep your word; the Lord wants you to keep your word. Fakes are evil, and we are also to avoid making commitments to those evil and false until true and climbing as a team of evil destroyers for us to start.

There is always a battle to win when you find your life falling—falling right to the bottom. If the bottom is not death, there is still a battle to interpret any breath. Not letting yourself fall means adapting to the breath of constancy.

The one found from constant for growth on life. Are you there, God? Jesus? Someone to talk to? Please know the relentless reach of one soul and realize the difference between strengths, for you absorbed the initial distance of everyone's focus on life's reach. You are the one who let a soul walk through hell and manifest a way closer to you. Look on every level when the feeling is getting lovable as a feeling of desperation to use for learning, teaching in time for growth, and a true feeling in you. This is an old, familiar, great feeling to have and keep for strength to soar up. It is made and ready for experience and for climbing your trail. It was you and me believing you gave me that manifested strength to climb, and I realized that you are still there at the top of my trail.

Absorbing everything new and seeing a falling star is a sure way of realizing something is there still to stop and love. Are you still climbing, realizing, hoping, believing, digging, and praying? Are you open to your own trail? For when a feeling like that goes through, a soul is a charm to hold. Give in to your mind basin, your strength, and your knowledge, and climb to make it.

DEEP DETERMINATION

Absolutely make sure and drive to get up the extremely terrifying and painful slopes, and prove the new, outstanding make. Collect deep faith while setting your achievement and bewildering many. Deep love and charisma will fulfill glamorously. Deep hope is growing stronger, and deep knowledge is gained by making your trail. Remember and still keep on and dig deeply into what poetry and wisdom have to reach.

You are triumphant in your make, and you are steadfast, and you are a stronger and smarter tiger than a growling beast. After the great climb to your mountain, your life, and your soul, it is always the best thing to stay on and keep going to become a determined American for the world.

Push your new trail, and don't stop making your outstanding, pure goals for life. There is always a better way and another day of life. The blood, the sweat, the thought, the determination, the tears, the pain, the glory, and the finished rewards of total life, love and achievement for glory, faith, children, and the future exist right now.

The good in a soul and the breath in a body can grow to destroy evil and prove what is in the life to grasp, to understand, and to dig, persevere, and achieve. There is no easy way, but there is life, goals, and dreams to catch, and there is glory to reach the world only in America. Start, think, climb, administer, grow, and learn, for it is here to learn, and it is here to glorify, love, and embrace in return, too. Show the difference in you and do not say there is a fine line for fun. It is uphill, and there are battles, many traps, trenches, and demons, but there is a way, and life will love.

In disaster and weight of trouble is the time that will grow to stay on your own trail. Hold and focus with great strength, building for experience and love. Hell will pass this way. You can adapt with your own trail, in your being built to endure from your basin and knowledgeable experience, or from staying on your new prosperous glory to show and push over the fence when hell is on earth with disaster, enemies, and demons that are trying to capture you in sight. Know there is always a way, never back down, and keep on making great goals to achieve. Music and cheers are heard when you are pushing the climb of your life. Make no failure to pursue the reaching of your souls, and make new journeys for the constantly changing world by sharing your inside feelings and achieving the great top.

HUSTLING MAKES IT HAPPEN

Hustle, think, and persevere your hustle while pain is in you through the base of the trail you are making. Show yourself that you can go the utmost mile. That is when your patience and strength grows, and you must keep on keeping on, to reach it and to make it. Stamina, day of so lonely and almost destruction tells that going through hell to get the better things in life is heaven on earth. Countless effort and countless measure make a future, for that is what your parents did. If one human can do it, another human can do it; that is how America was made, and in God we trust. The great workaholic Micheal Molliver, along with Mary Molliver and nine children, make the life to love. The old, familiar feeling of greatness feels your existence as you share.

Find what holds you down and know what starts that to stop it, make it cease, go around, and nip it in the bud. Distress, wondering constantly, and looking for fame and wisdom for your family can hold you down. Look, see, focus, observe, and find the reason behind the reason; it is grown in you, for growing your trail will make you happy when you have succeeded.

Faith is so close and yet so far when it is constant and for the sake of God. Of course, never leave your family, they should always come first, and since this will be proven, I would love to say “keep on keeping on.” This is a very strong-willed, determined, loving group of life. This family can really do something for the great family Mary and Michael Molliver determinedly made. Michael Molliver not only said “Whatever it takes,” He took it to the “Core” to show all of us what it means and we cherish it in our hearts forever. No devil is going to take that away.

So people, help destroy evil and keep on keeping on. Make your trail grow, for America can make a great epidemic of destroying all demons and evil.

HUT TO HUT FOR

You need a boost sometimes to make you feel good enough. Those shooting for the top hear some inclinations of what made you say that cool outstanding thing, “Be yourself, what one human can do, another can. Don’t give up!” It is a never-ending reach for your soul’s life of objectives, for the body’s mind, and not who you are. It is a part of integrity to grow on for strength and charisma. Hunt for yourself; you have what it takes to show and make.

Even the highest grasp of leadership itself still has room for knowledge, laughter, praise, and new arrays. This is more than unheard of to work with at times. It is something that would never be let forgotten, for as well as your getting closer to that one goal, there is a know-how of accomplishment of setting. Take a trip until you find you can only live so much and that you can only die so much. Let people see that over and again until you are on a close, level, site-building experience of stature and path.

To leave an enormous set behind, know and make sure of what to put in and take out, like a great editor of life. The past is a guidepost to adapt from and to make better. When you're through changing, you're done. You must now adapt from that; never say the big picture is complete. Feel yourself in your mind as a drill instructor for WWII, for you will not falter until your set is complete. Intensity and without your lips, showing a piece at a time, growing, and administering still, for you only get one life to achieve something. In life, always love and always have a look at things, for every human has it with no sorrows.

It would make its own words to keep you out of trouble. Still doing it will give you a faster acknowledgement of how to cope and deal with what crosses your path of sight and life. It would bring value about for others not to think about what you're always making happen and remembering life needs this and never had it.

Cry out for insight and understanding you would be known for. Your instructions would be appreciated if they were well presented. People who cherish understanding will prosper, and they will love their vision to keep awake and keep figuring from day to day. To keep with what the great Lord always said, they're alive to show what the devil is always trying to destroy. Some time after all this slow controversy, you feel the power that is deep-seated in the depth of your existence. It brings your visions close to show others, and it sometimes explains how to keep it real so that you can observe.

In this thought, you would also have to make precautions and preparations for what you are trying to do and show. Evil is always there for you, so you need patience, strength, knowledge, and precautionary, far-out plans. Just as I write, since I've been teaching myself this way for others, my amenity is not so hard after the time has grown. Today, as some have visions of greatness, there comes in again of life, and now it will be adapted to a way faster than before. When I started knowing, I found that the most is always there. Be prepared for the battle, but no matter what, the victory belongs to the Lord.

Don't ever lose sight of good planning and insight. Hang on to them, for they always fill you with life and bring you honor. We can make our plans, but the Lord determines our steps. Pray to him and thank the Lord for insight, and your plans will succeed. For the Lord is in control of and has made everything for his own purpose. Always love others and their best and highest good achievements. There is a feeling to love.

THE DEMON PAIN

Demon pain is the most pain a body and mind and soul can experience. Pow! Over, through, inside, outside; it is always there in your life for the test to climb your trail, to make it, and to release in time, for only you know. This is the way which, by studying, you can let your breath come out with a constant, frightening feeling at every step of the base of your own trail.

So much heartache, punishable pain, and torture comes about from the mistake of leaving the great Lord and getting caught by a demon. All the things on your mountain in your mind are there if you quit once you start. So use intense, constant belief and continued growth to get the top of your vision and your growth of faith.

You will beat this demon, and you will experience all sorts of staying the trail and collecting experience on every level where a demon somehow exists also. It's absorbed and it's replayed, and you grow and grow along the way without demon pain to pollute your own trail so that you can Reach and show America the great.

In animal terms, you must turn into a great tiger and carry a praying mantis on your heart to attack and to make demons a snack.

MY REVELATION

I started spending nights in my trailer with the power of prayer to save me from life's trail of bull, alcohol, and evil punishment. I did not care about anything in life at that time. The great prayer was answered not too much later.

Still not caring, I was partying with alcohol at a bar at night with a friend that was polluted with evil. It was getting late, and I went to leave, only to find my ride had been stolen. Mad, intoxicated, and tired, we started walking to my friend's house. I started walking down a little hill with a wall that separated the street. Just because I was not caring, I jumped down to cross the road. My feet, as I was jumping to the street, hit the curb, and I tripped and bashed my head on the pavement. My head was cut, and I whacked it enough to knock me into a three-week coma.

All I remember are the dreams of fighting the Grim Reaper in the back of a short rig by my high school, where I played football as number twenty-two. In the back of the rig, I had to get out and find a way by fighting, kicking, beating, scratching, pushing, pulling, digging, and constantly searching to get out and stay alive. My whole existence was focused on beating that devil demon, and my desire was finally answered. Finally, after great, constant effort, I made it into an airplane up in the sky with Mrs. Nancy Regan telling me to be careful. I vividly remember saying back to her, "This plane could go down, so you be careful."

I was in China at a baseball game, in houses in California, with demons upstairs, and I was at my funeral. Perhaps because I was a roofer in Pennsylvania, I found myself in New York in a skyscraper with a different job. I was on a boat and a train. After a whole lot of coma dreams, I finally opened my eyes.

I was somewhere, but where? After more time spent healing, I recognized that I was in Healthsouth with my parents, brothers, sisters, aunts, and uncles visiting. After more healing I found out that in the waiting room, my parents found a number on a piece of paper, and the number was twenty-two. The Lord was telling them I would be all right. Call it a miracle, but I have been deep in thought ever since then, and I am patiently persevering on writing a book called Making Your Own Trail.

I want to help tell people to think, notice evil, and get out of the devil's ways to stop them from believing and to capture them with his demons to grow and win. No way!

For you cannot hide good and if you don't, you can never say you did. You would figure your own word to hit your goal. It is always life, and it is always your life to add to or change according to how it will be better than the last time you tried. Always get better because of the change you started if you want to obtain the future. Dig even small; the great Lord will help with your goals to see that it is a little better if you ask him. It takes more and more thought and extreme love of your life.

Your time is your time every moment, and so is acknowledging what to do with it to conquer your goals. Be careful and keep on task, for they won't know what you're up to until they start to realize and begin to help. When they don't, it hurts, but you still know your reach, and they forget it and don't feel it until it crosses their path and sight. Work your mind as well as your body just to achieve knowledge and your own feeling for love.

Be kind and generous, and be free in giving and sharing, for every mind is not evil. "Times will always change, but people never will," my gram and aunts told me, and my mother, Mary Molliver, is also a great worker who raised nine children; she is the backbone of our lives. When love and skill work together, expect a masterpiece. You are missing the joys of life, and you never thought about reaching them. Keep your eye on the ball, for you yourself are pushing it upon the world as a presentation. The Lord doesn't lie, and only you will find out in your own way. If you ever look, then you shall find; maybe not in the way you prefer, but you have to believe, and you must believe in your effort. Look for the one who is in troubled times and know it.

The only things you control yourself are your choices, for where would the world be without a desire to love? Be a person of value. Study and get ready for your time, for a chance may perhaps come. Strike when the iron is hot, and furnish it with hope and smiles, for a good plan today is better than a perfect plan tomorrow. The more you stay and know what evil is, the more it will keep you away from sin.

I'm sure some people, such as the masterminded and outspoken, would love to do something with their lives that is unequivocal. It's very important to the one who never quits no matter what is come upon. Keep on keeping on and doing studies and homework. For others to see what good things you keep doing for others and life is what the great Lord needs to help you. Get a person or two to feel and believe, and you will receive what you are looking for—the promise.

It is very important not to feed your life with evil thoughts. That is what the devil loves to feel and see, for he is already ahead of you, making the evil life you don't want. This way he cannot win at all, not even a little bit, for he loves all evil and feeds off the little evil you accidentally do give him so his power will accumulate. Bitterness will always invade your judgment, and evil will also.

YOUR GREAT MIND BASIN FOR STRENGTH

The one you will automatically build on the way with generosity, intelligence, good companionship, good friendship, and good sport I as a thinker. Find out the best way of handling yourself through having intelligence of nature, by having good nature, and by figuring out what to do for the destruction of bad times. Get fast advice for the reaching of survival with life and have belief in goals of wisdom for finding life. Get all the advice and instruction you can, so that you can be wise for the rest of your life. Have common sense and logic, glory and pride, strength and extreme faith in others, straight mindedness and adventurousness. Be a leader type when necessary to teach others what to do in life by sight. Be strong and courageous, and make bold choices of good planning. Maintain the adaptability of differences and the stamina of a scholar. Keep your happiness and wonder of the fear of the Lord. Add to and make your basin that pushes your soul to grow for all your loved ones

Trust your understanding and the purity of your surroundings. Pay attention to visions and your family to teach by sight and manifestation. Listen to and absorb God's wisdom, loyalty, motivation, and big love of life. Limit adaptability while having serenity in life for others and the Lord will judge. Know the difference between studying and searching for wisdom of your time. A great story cannot just be spoken.

A change in fate is your shot, or is it? Make that little voice behind your existence scream and grow. This is the one you bring out from behind your soul in your mind. Hit the ball over the fence and take your time going around the bases. Never give in; know the way from within. Know what it takes to make your inner voice speak out to others in reaching life by starting at what is not thought. A spoken miracle is the ghost of thought and determination that people hear. All the statistics in the world can't measure the mental power you are shouting for. True silence is the rest of the mind, and what you have in mind will be shown.

WHAT FOLLOWS YOUR SOUL AND HEART

As you search through the bull of knowledge for what is really true, do not stop to achieve for someone to feel so you can help. Everything has its place when purity and great work is able to grow within your surroundings and others. To be strong and steadfast would be a good start, and it is something only you would know; it is your soul!

Don't quit, for that is what is unconditional for life; it's most fruitful to your understanding. There is no feeling that can come close to the feeling pursuing your mind, for what is better than the best thoughts? So many of life's present things imagine and change and achieve to make a difference most would understand. Let belief grow, and believe in what you believe in to put in your life what humanity has forgotten and needs.

Take a journey of knowledge, strength, prosperity, glory, voice, life, and the unexplainable feelings of teaching. The road runs, but it needs to learn how to give and receive love. A wise man is hungry for truth; a fool feeds on trash and bull. You get to achieve the knowledge of love for prosperity and knowledge for the great life that will be for a true human being—an American.

Loyalty and kindness are great to keep close to; that will be written deep and deeper within your heart while you administer the true way of what is just and acknowledged to integrity. Go through levels in patient time, containing only your learning skills of thought through life and the present, remembering and looking for strength, knowledge, success, humor, hope, and fear of the Maker.

There is a difference between all things, and a reason can be found as well if it is patiently looked for while breathing and living. There is always a way for everything that can happen. Give yourself to the great Lord; he can do more with you than you can do yourself. For he who will give to you teaches me to give, for he is looking, and he knows. Always focus on the here and now to change a life or to do more; that is looking for something to love. A thing to focus on can be little, and trustworthiness will come. What it takes is a good tool. My father's life is made for all to see.

Extreme work says it all from your soul to make it. The great feelings are never returned to you as waste. A man is made by his knowledge of choices of life. Knowing what you can reach and making it is a memory, and if you don't, you will never feel it. For the future, one day at a time is realized after dreams happen with what you make for being patient and how you go at it.

Never doubt, for it will get you tomorrow and drive you mad. There is always a way to beat you into not believing. That's why you fight extremely hard for strength, integrity, and humanity. The feelings come in your body now, ASAP, and pronto as something great to show the world. The gut-wrenching, almost tearful, day-to-day existence for you and what you know as of now will grow and reach power.

Your mind can be cleansed as well as your body. Look for purity and work with the Lord; everything has its place. Work with patients until it is fine and knowledgeable and true for others to see and acknowledge it. There is life and joy to reach, along with new love and laughter. Beat evil away and be careful, for you know it's right from the get-go.

THROUGH THE BULL

Persue your mind for what is better than the best thoughts; only let yourself learn the great teachings of prosperity. The pain that is still there is trying to keep it. While knowing you can only live so much, know that you can only die once, to keep on looking for the life we should all have, still don't give up. Lead an exciting life with glory and determination to conquer your life dreams. For others to understand the next page with you, keep the teachings alive till you can glance at people's insides to see if they have it. When you do see them is when you can be a team to make dreams come alive and happen. You could imagine many of life's present things and conquer them or make a difference. Hold on to your dreamland and your log house in the woods with ducks and fishing holes so you are not the only one.

DEMONPAIN

This is the most pain a body and mind and soul can experience. Over, through, inside, and outside, it is always there in your life for years. It is only released in time, for only you know. This was how it was—to let your breath come out with a frightening feeling during each step of movement and speech. Inside, you were hopeful while frightened, but doing it came out well. This was so much heartache, punishing pain, and torture for someone to go through. Wish, beg, persevere, and pray to make the thing finally happen. Great joys in life don't just happen; they are administered and planned with extreme thought, time, enormous goals, and strength, and they are heart shattering time and again. Never in a thousand years would I think that person would accomplish it, nor would I think that with so much charisma, strength, pain, tears, and nonstop prayer that one could finally produce a legitimate guideline of thought to stick with as a reminder of knowledge for you. This is an unexplainable thought to remember and make happen. It is four years later now, and all is even, for it is accomplished.

It is so hard to make intellectual personifications of how to go at life while trying to get there to hit a nonstop goal of platinum—a great reminder to push you for a goal. I search for a nonstop goal while my family is listening to my family's goal so they don't learn evil ways that bring them down. I do this to see for others how life will affect the kids with regard to what I study and to show them how life can be great. To avoid grueling labor when I am too old to dig it up, I administer things and the ways in which they get accomplished while young. This is what the solid, good, great people do while living to give great people another idea about life so they can know they are not the only ones and so they can shoot for a team player with them. This is how great things are made for America. Keep pressure on that fact of life, for sooner or later, it will happen. Only God knows ahead of people's goals, and maybe it is for my family's great benefit forever, like him and Jesus.

For what can never be lost is the thinking of and doing of making the start of something so good for reaching America. People should read and study what comes from the soul of an intellectual person and compare it to what is so true about daily aggression and digging out from the bottom of life in a nonstop study of how to get prosperity administered.

THE ETERNAL MOUNTAIN IN YOUR MIND

You can climb the mountain in your life for a trail of knowledge, respect, character, and fame. It's what gives more intensity to your motivation, your total belief of what you are shooting for in your life, and your dreams to share. Climb, attack, find, and administer your way for what you see to make and persevere. Stick, study, and make yourself better with good, solid thoughts to show, and make it for acknowledgments of life. Up this great trail of thoughts, perseverance, pain, sweat, patience, and life spring up from the depths of breath, sight, and dreams as you study the knowledge of life and how to conquer and achieve goals of amazement to share.

The base of this brings power and strength by making you think quicker and faster and making it a little easier to display. It finds your existence and the reason you're here, and it's up to you to make your trail, for you are never getting younger. Examine your process of action every day and learn how to change it until you understand the drive of determination in goals to reach and life.

Be wild again, almost like a tiger, so that you will not quit and get captured by the wild demons the devil is always sending to stop you.

Make it and hit it to the top every time. Change it for your best.

Make it grow, for never is failure an option, and once it is leveled, there comes a great attitude and teaching of how life is so easily forgotten and how evil is able to protrude. Something to put in everyday circulation is that evil is never a thought. Always think and stay carefully, for only the great Lord knows.

It can be vigorous, but that is when you build you, and that is what you have to go through to enjoy good things. You go through hell to get to heaven anyway, so let your life show you how to make it. Lead a great life without weakening your way of figuring out where the barricades are, and study the best way around, over, or through them without failure or capture to make it to the great top. Keep the vision alive and keep it strong, for why not? That is what you are doing, for the power of thought will grow, and so will the power of prayer.

Your faith will grow as well, and you will feel it to teach others gradually on your way to hit the better part of life. Be and become content and have things rarely thought of up your sleeves to make it happen for a growing cycle of everyday glory of remembrance. Guard your soul, for demons are watching. Pay attention and listen to the speech of wise people, for advice from the wise is great to study.

Hold knowledge and life in along the way, and your wonderful power to get there grows. Dig into your knowledge and find the answer before every row of what's in the way of another row of barbwire and predators to capture you. Get into the basin of what is growing where experimental answers are still there to give another back to you for more experience and knowledge.

The devil preys on the quitter, and he will keep his demons accumulating around the quitter until you are not living ; that's what it wants. So your inside depth of perseverance in finding what you're after can be a daunting experience in making a new way of life to reach and administer. So patience and thought is open and thought of and made for the best of the extreme. A mother, a keepsake, a memory, a goal, a peak, a super-brilliant a relic in time, and a masterful, super-strong source of love.

Since that is accumulated in your life and stuck in there for the most of what is going to be, you stick to the code while cleaning it. It needs to be cleaned to keep it running like any motor or house that needs maintenance. After finding out time and again not to let go, quit, and falter, keep on keeping on for certain, for the best way to stop evil is by the works and dreams of America, and the people to understand that.

This is the best feeling a human being can have that can be felt time and again automatically, for your body has no boundaries. So in your time, it will be a great mountain in your mind to have and know, for without even thinking about it, you also are a good American and a human being of Jesus which is the great Lord in your life of study for hope, breath, and life of extreme livingheart beat..

Remember your time of innocence to work on how far your own vessel can grow and sail. Carry yourself with strength, wisdom, and enthusiasm that can be attached to show the way in your mind; this figures in crucially to the way you choose to be and climb.

Oh no! Another thorn bush, which is another barrier. Get faster with your wisdom and know quicker ways to go around, cut it up, or cover it up to get straight to the infinite top to stay with glory, love, achievement, and your life the way you fought to have it.

THINKING AHEAD

Only a brain can do, and trial and error tells the tale. Hope never ceases; wonder never ceases; it is always in you, always as a global team, and always there. Saying and making is the thought, and constant changes to make are another focus. Study so that you can make time, and do it again for your initial manifested level of trail and life. How do you go at it while every way counts and every trail counts only in America the free. Become positive, true, faithful, and abundant to share for the team made from digging and absorbing back. Think about and deliver promptly and legitimately your best sets of truth. Build and grow for love of life, as you have only one choice—to make your own trail. You can do it by collecting the days, cleansing the days, and setting the days for total belief without failure. Know not to give up, and there is always a way when you're on your own trail.

In every town and in every city around the world is wisdom, and asking questions to find the answers to some things in life are there for you and your team. Know the make of the reach. To teach another true, legitimate life to go from proving and finding demons to destroying and paying back what the devil has done with it is bull.

Remember and absolutely love doing things and working your mind and body by constantly thinking and making your own trail for your loved ones and for America the beautiful to grow freedom without the devil that it may live in harmony and come together.

The past is always made known so that it can be shared and so you can teach the globe by attacking and staying on your own trail to make a new life you can use to share and teach the truth of what a soul can do with Jesus and his power to send his angels as protection from evil. Be careful and study life to make your own trail for you and you alone!

ATTACK

Hone your power, your knowledge to grow, your ethics, your teachings, your life, your time, your mind, your prosperity, your ability to grind, your foresight, your hell and your heaven, your way, your memories, and your love to grow, for your destiny, without failure, is to achieve and succeed for life, and you and only you can do this. Constant grinding can turn anything into a needle point to be used as many times as you can hit that point for growth. Hear in your mind the way it thinks automatically as your dreams push for the gratification of your soul. Look at all, think about all, persevere through all, and get things moving for all to know and grow with the beginning, too. Tiger style is always here and always changing, so go to sleep and wake up; the world is still there to persevere and attack and show your reach, your drive, and your strength. Sleep and wake up; the world still needs your help and thoughts, for it is still and always will be there to share and show your way. Nothing stands in the way of constant effort attacking to develop and show prosperity and life.

Consider it a great thing, a gamble, and a dream of thought and strength. It is a guideline you will always have to teach the world; it is always moving and thinking, for your dreams are not quitting, but growing and collecting further feelings you have never felt. This is an everlasting ritual that can be extremely studied to be your genuine, unique, power point.

Relentlessly pursue the life given to you and your ambitions to let others adapt to the way chosen while showing good deeds to the world for others never thought to attack your trail and your prosperity. The attack of increasing knowledge, drive, intensity, charisma, and power can be heard coming from the smartness of my people's knowledge as they imagine every aspect of sight through the masterpiece of human life. After a brain bruise that caused a coma and the love of good, bad, evil, and society not letting go no matter what, I absolutely know life has a fine difference, it can be found between the relentless possibilities of thought, difference, truth, and purity if all of them are studied.

Keep on keeping on while adapting to and absorbing only good ideas and voices from and visions intercepted while digging through to the way back to the base of human start for the best and most surprising way to the sky again.

For most who are faithful, only God has control of all. You understand there is a big difference between thinking of something and doing something, so if you studied this in your way, then you can do it for a good feeling for yourself and others to feel.

Inspire the details of the power of thought that is knocked into total truth nonstop every day, week, and year. Find your way to attest to a most outstanding life dream to make it stick in the smartness of the world, and follow it to help it grow. Then make a new, outstanding improvement in the world. Make a lovable, fun presentation of human life to understand totally what is supposed to be. Wouldn't it be a global epidemic—a great one that makes life better, by making humans work together and study to understand.

Make yourself pure from the start. To be more pure is the greatest feeling of love to pursue. Get others to feel it and make it grow, for that is keeping it real, that is promising, that is the utmost, that is relentless, that is it, and that is most, "True-life," to make. It is the start; it is the greatest thinking of humanity to get the ball, trigger, and wheel bouncing, pulled, turning, and working for a constant growth for the globe.

TO MAKE YOUR OWN TRAIL IN LIFE

Where do you start and how do you find your strength? Add to your strength as you go through life wherever you go and whatever you do. The main thing is keeping true to the main thing. Get a positive attitude and stay positive. Adding to that and knowing it will be a long shot, though, and a gamble. Never give up for anything in your face. You only get one chance at life to try, and this would be extra great to do. Wouldn't you like to be looked at and thought of with admiration and respect? Make some, or even a lot, look up to you as a positive role model. See the chances that life sends you when they come your way, and really love and know that this is it.

Stop for a little while and gather up your thoughts of your past, present, and future. What have you done, and what can you do by changing a lot of your life until it is better than before? Take all these thoughts with you as you move on through your journey of life; you are perfecting your change. Picture a mountain back in the distance with trails leading to the top. Everyone thinks about which trail to travel and how to get there the quickest and easiest way. It is your turn to show how you get there to achieve and stay on your dreams. Make your life the best it can be to the best of your ability. This is the answer that everyone seeks for it, in life. A lot of people wish for things that are unrealistic in life or unattainable, and they will give up on these things. They fail in not knowing they are slowly falling down the trail of life and going deeper into despair and depression. They do not realize that they need to set their sites on reaching goals first and then take a bigger step higher up the mountain of life.

People see you achieving your ambitions and they want to be like you, so they start to wonder how you are doing that. You say in your enthusiasm, “Don’t ever give up; it is all mostly uphill,” and “Work hard.” Be willing, get positive, stay positive, and set goals. If it is something you really want, hard work is rewarding. Everyone has to find his or her own way to get to the top. When you get to the top, you are really happy—a winner shining like a star in the sky. Not everyone has the same dream or idea of success in life. You don’t have to be rich with money or material things in life. The most important thing is to never give up. Always add to and perfect your goals still being along the way. Make it honest, noble, and faithful. Be willing to always work hard. Make yourself stronger in life as you are climbing up the steep sides and striving to be better at what you do and wish. Just remember, you can do it! Life will have your back; You will make it happen. Always move cautiously in your “Life”, is the main thing while perfecting, understanding, praying, showing, helping, pushing, and conquering!
